PAPERSKATER TIP SHEET #10

BRING PAPER TO THE INTERVIEW.

An interview move that costs pocket change.

THE MISTAKE

Showing up empty-handed. The supervisor across the table has talked to ten people today — and they all showed up with nothing. Be the memorable one.

FIX IT TONIGHT

✓ Print three clean copies
Three copies of your one-page résumé. Clean, current, no wrinkles.

✓ Hand one over
When you sit down, hand one to the interviewer: “Brought this in case it’s helpful.” It says prepared, serious, and respectful of their time — without you saying a word.

✓ Keep one for yourself
Glance at your own dates if they ask. Looking prepared beats sounding perfect.

Paper. Pocket change. Unfair advantage. First impressions are half the battle.
